

POSITION: School Facilitator

NO. OF POSITIONS: 2

LOCATION: Mumbai

DESCRIPTION:

The Bright Future School Facilitator is responsible for delivering the life skills development and career development program with the students of 8th to 10th grade in low income private schools. A School Facilitator is responsible for planning and facilitating the sessions for students, organising guest lectures, assessing the student's progress and sharing with them. The facilitator also plays a crucial role in building a strong rapport with the school principal, teachers and parents for creating a conducive environment for students in school.

COMPENSATION:

Will be based on relevant experience and skills as per industry standards

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE:

- Graduate/Masters in Social Work/Management/Education/ any other field
- Good command on English, Hindi and Marathi (preferred) language
- Passionate about youth development through life skills training
- Minimum one year of experience of working in a formal school set up
- No prior experience of facilitation is mandatory but only a strong belief in process of facilitation for learning is desired
- Ability to research and design session plans creatively
- Required minimum two years of commitment